Case No.: 5:24-cv-02681-SSS-DTB

*[Honorable District Judge, Sunshine
Suzanne Sykes, Magistrate Judge, David
T. Bristow]*

13
14 STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

15 DISCOVERY MATTER

16 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

17 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production 18 of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from 19 public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation
20 may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court
21 to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this 22 Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery 23 and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the 24 limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the 25 applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section
26 13.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file
27 confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 141 sets forth the procedures 28 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), the Court recognizes that pre-trial discovery in this case is likely to include the production of information and/or documents that are confidential and/or privileged including the production of information and/or documents which the Court agrees includes: (1) Personal data, including but not limited to social security numbers and similar sensitive identifying information, marital status, family members, educational and employment history, home addresses, or similar information; (2) Medical and/or mental health history; and (3) Medical Reports and Photographs. See Sanchez v. City of Santa Ana, 936 F.2d 1027, 1033 (9th Cir. 1990); see also Kerr v. United States Dist. Ct. for N.D. Cal., 511 F.2d 192, 198 (9th Cir. 1975), aff'd, 426 U.S. 394 (1976). Further, the Court recognizes that discovery may require the production of certain law enforcement records, policies, and procedures not available to the public and the public disclosure of which could comprise officer safety, raise security issues, and/or impede investigations.

Public disclosure of such material may pose a substantial risk of embarrassment, oppression and/or physical harm to the individuals whose Confidential Information is disclosed. Accordingly, good cause exists for entry of this Protective Order to facilitate pre-trial disclosure while assuring the safety of these sensitive disclosures. See Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 26(c).

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 Action: this pending federal lawsuit.

3.2 Challenging Party: a Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

3.3 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

3.4 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House

1 Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2 3.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 3 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 4 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

5 3.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 6 the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 7 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 8 generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

9 3.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
10 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 11 expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

12 3.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action.
13 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 14 counsel.

15 3.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 16 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

17 3.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party 18 to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have 19 appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which 20 has appeared on behalf of that party.

21 3.11 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, 22 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 23 support staffs).

24 3.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 25 Discovery Material in this action.

26 3.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 27 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 28 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium)

1 and their employees and subcontractors.

2 3.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is
3 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

4 3.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material
5 from a Producing Party.

6 4. SCOPE

7 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only
8 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted 9 from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of 10 Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties
11 or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections
12 conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a)
13 any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving 14 Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as 15 a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part 16 of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the 17 Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the 18 disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no 19 obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at 20 trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

21 5. DURATION

22 Once a case proceeds to trial, all the information and documents used during 23 trial that was designated as confidential or maintained under this Order becomes 24 public and will be presumptively available to all members of the public, including the 25 press, unless the trial judge finds compelling reasons to proceed otherwise. See
26 Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1180-81 (9th Cir. 2006)
27 (distinguishing “good cause” showing for sealing documents produced in discovery
28

1 from “compelling reasons” needed for merits-related documents). Accordingly, the 2 terms of this Order do not extend beyond the beginning of trial.

3 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations
4 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees
5 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be 6 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or 7 without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion
8 of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time 9 limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to 10 applicable law.

11 6. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 6.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

13 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection
14 under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 15 qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 16 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 17 communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, 18 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 19 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

20 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations
21 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper 22 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to 23 impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating 24 Party to sanctions.

25 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it
26 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 27 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

28 6.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in

1 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise
2 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection
3 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 4 produced.

5 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

6 (a) For information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 7 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial
8 proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each 9 page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a 10 page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the 11 protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

12 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for 13 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 14 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 15 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 16 deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents
17 it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, 18 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the 19 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend
20 to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the 21 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 22 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 23 margins).

24 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial
25 proceedings, that the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the 26 deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony.

27 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary
28 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place

1 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored
2 the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or 3 item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify 4 the protected portion(s). For electronically stored and transmitted files, the 5 Designating Party must include in the file name the “Confidential” designation. Any 6 party reproducing electronically stored and transmitted materials (e.g., printing copies)
7 not already designated “Confidential” shall label the material “Confidential” before 8 using or transmitting the material.

9 6.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 10 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 11 Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
12 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 13 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 14 Order.

15 7. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

16 7.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party may challenge a designation of 17 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s 18 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, 19 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a 20 Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not 21 to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

22 7.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 23 resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging
24 and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a 25 challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to 26 confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the 27 Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and 28 must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

8. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

8.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 14 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

8.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

(a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the

Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

(h) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

9. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

1 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order
2 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the 3 subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include
4 a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

5 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 6 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

7 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 8 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 9 action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the 10 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s 11 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 12 protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions
13 should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action 14 to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

15 10. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED
16 IN THIS LITIGATION

17 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a 18 Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 19 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 20 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 21 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

22 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 23 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 24 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s 25 confidential information, then the Party shall:

26 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-27 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality
28 agreement with a Non-Party;

1 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
2 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a 3 reasonably specific description of the information requested; and

4 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 5 Non-Party.

6 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this 7 court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the 8 Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive 9 to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the 10 Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is 11 subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination 12 by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the 13 burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

14 11. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
16 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 17 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 18 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts
19 to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or 20 persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, 21 and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and 22 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

23 12. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
24 PROTECTED MATERIAL

25 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 26 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 27 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 28

1 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure
2 may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without 3 prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar 4 as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or 5 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 6 parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted 7 to the court.

8 13. MISCELLANEOUS

9 13.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 10 person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

11 13.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 12 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 13 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 14 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 15 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

16 13.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the 17 Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested
18 persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material.
19 A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil 20 Local Rule 141. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court 21 order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to 22 Civil Local Rule 141, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that 23 the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise
24 entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected
25 Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 141(b) is denied by the court, then 26 the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil 27 Local Rule 141(e)(1) unless otherwise instructed by the court.
28

14. FINAL DISPOSITION

Within 90 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 5, upon written notification served by Producing or Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 90 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 5 (DURATION).
